(1) VISIT + TASTING + SNACKS AND APPETIZERS + EQUESTRIAN SHOW AT DELGADO ZULETA WINERY

<https://www.delgadozuleta.com>

<https://www.delgadozuleta.com/visitas>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DXFV5EprvGg> (see corporate video)

We get lost in the winery discovering the fascinating production of the Marco de Jerez Wines, especially La Manzanilla. The oldest winery in the triangle, founded in 1744, takes things early and pampers its wines so that you can enjoy them in a parallel tasting of four wines (Manzanilla Zuleta, Manzanilla La Goya, Amontillado Zuleta and Cream Zuleta). You can replenish your energy with a catering of salty snacks and tapas (jamón, queso, caña de lomo, salchichón, chorizo y chicharrones), (if you don't eat pork or have any other peculiarity in your diet, let us know, we will prepare something special for you). And you can enjoy a unique equestrian show that combines the art of dressage, andalusian horse dancing and flamenco dancing.

From the Delgado Zuleta Winery we will go to the Sanlúcar Bus Station, from where we will walk a 5 m route to the Guadalquivir Hotel for lunch.

(2) SPECIAL SANLUQUEÑO MENU AT HOTEL GUADALQUIVIR

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0OnWCLhz33s> (ver video corporativo)

At 14:30h in the dining room of the Hotel Guadalquivir we will proceed to taste their Special Sanluqueño Menu which consists of the following dishes:

At Center: Seafood Salpicón, Crispy Prawns, Dogfish Marinade, Fried Choquito.

Main: Seafood Rice or Gardener Veal (to choose).

Dessert: Homemade Tocino de Cielo.

Drinks: Manzanilla / Red Wine / Beer / Sodas / Mineral Water.

Once lunch is over, calmly, after coffee and drinks or whatever is on the Camarote Terrace and having enjoyed its privileged views, we will cross La Feria to go to the Hidalgo La Gitana Winery at 17:30h.

(3) VISIT + TASTING AT HIDALGO LA GITANA WINERY

Bodegas Hidalgo La Gitana was founded in 1792 and since then the firm has passed from father to son, today being one of the few wine companies in the region, managed by the family and directed by the eighth generation in direct line of the founder. The name alludes to its star product, “Manzanilla LA GITANA”, endorsed by several relevant international awards, it is perhaps the most popular Manzanilla in both the national and international markets.

At 17:30h. Welcome wine, guided tour 'glass in hand' (patios, 18th century office, cathedral winery and sweet wine cellar), tasting of four wines (Manzanilla La Gitana en Rama, Manzanilla Pasada Pastrana from the boot, Oloroso Faraón and Cream Alameda), small aperitif and gift of a tasting wine from 'La Gitana'. Duration: 1h 20min approx.

From here on, it is recommended to optionally enjoy the following activities, taking into account that at 03 hours the bus return to origin. The ideal is to enjoy, of course, all of La Feria but mainly the Hotel Guadalquivir, Bodega Hidalgo La Gitana axis, which is located in the heart of La Feria. Furthermore, both locations are a perfect meeting point at any time.

We recommend you enjoy perhaps the best sunset in all of Sanlúcar from the Camarote Terrace of the Guadalquivir Hotel located on the 11th floor of the building, from where you can also see a panoramic view of the mouth of the Guadalquivir, the Sanlúcar Coast, Doñana in the background, and all of La Feria in all its splendor and extension throughout the Calzada de La Duquesa and surrounding areas.

(4) FINAL CHAMPIONS, DINNER AND DRINKS AT GASTROTABERNA CENTRAL STATION (recommended)

www.turismo.com/turismo-turismo-hotel-guadalquivir-gastrotaberna-central-station-carta.pdf (see menu)

The GastroTaberna Central Station presents its Arrocería with a menu made up of 26 rice dishes, paellas, broths and fideuás in the best valencian style, developed and directed by the master rice maker of that land, José Luis Chaparro (two-time world champion). To the gastronomic offer is also added an extensive menu of tapas and specialties that are mixed with an exciting and sweet environment like that of the movies that take place in the mythical Orient Express, thanks to a faithful replica of the same present in this establishment. Once the sunset is over, if you want to continue having drinks at a lower price than at the Camarote Terrace, you can do so at the GastroTaberna Central Station located on the ground floor of the Hotel Guadalquivir, watching, for example, the Champions League Final. Also, if you are hungry they have an exceptional menu at a very good price. We recommend it to you.

(4) DRINKS AND LIVE MUSIC AT HIDALGO LA GITANA WINERY (recommended)
<https://www.bodegashidalgolagitana.com>

The Hidalgo La Gitana Winery, in the heart of La Feria, transforms its facilities into a booth fully integrated with the other participants, and also offers a very attractive live music program that you cannot miss. We recommend it to you.
